HOW DOES YOUR AUTO INSURANCE POLICY PROTECT YOU?

An auto insurance policy is a valuable investment and can protect you and others from a broad range of scenarios. Don't forget to carry evidence of your auto insurance in your vehicle at all times. This can be your insurance card or a picture on your phone.

Here are 8 reasons why auto insurance is important:

1. It protects you if you are at fault for a Collision.
2. It can compensate you for a Collision caused by someone else.
3. It can help protect your assets.
4. It can cover you for bodily injury if the at-fault driver left the scene.
5. It can cover your passengers.
6. It can cover you for bodily injury when the at-fault driver did not have enough coverage
7. It can compensate you for property damage repairs to your vehicle.
8. It can supplement your health insurance.

MEET ATTORNEY DANIEL FLINN

Originally from New Zealand, Attorney Flinn moved to the United States five years ago with his wife and six of his children. After completing his legal education at Georgia State University, Attorney Flinn was admitted to the Bar Association of Georgia in 2021. He quickly began building a successful career as an attorney at Williams and Associates, where he has earned a reputation for his tenacity and dedication to his clients. With experience representing clients in depositions, mediations, and court hearings, Attorney Flinn has a deep understanding of the intricacies of the legal system.

Outside of the office, Attorney Flinn enjoys making Texas Barbecue and spending quality time with his family. His dedication to his work, combined with his warm and approachable demeanor, makes him a valuable asset to clients seeking effective legal representation.
